

CAMP
HOT TOPICS AND GOSSIP

The Destiny Press

VOLUME 52, ISSUE 3

AUGUST 8, 2007

The PLK's want to announce that "Campy" is real. There are even bite marks in the sides of the lake noodles

The 'Laundry Lady' tell us that a staff member is not wearing underwear to the flagpole in the mornings.

The grad girls are in love with Jim Bob

The grad boys really T.P.'d their own cabin

Tomorrow is Mason's B-Day

Juice Masters INC.

BUG JUICE, Gives you wings

NYSE@CJMInc.

Name:
Betty Overocker
(Vogt)

Occupation:
Chemistry/
Biology
Teacher

Favorite Part of Camp:
Fellowship

Least Favorite
Part of Camp:
Going Home

Hobbies:
Needlework
such as quilting, Crocheting, and knitting.

TRADITION! By Janny C.A.M.P. land Security

"Everything's fine in cabin number 9!" That one simple saying transformed flag raising into a daily monumental event! For twenty plus years, the morning flag raising was just that, with campers answering "here" or "present" when their cabin number was called. THEN! One morning when we got to "cabin nine" the reply came back "Everything's fine in cabin number nine!" Well...not to be outdone, the next morning we heard, "Everything's great in cabin number eight!" and it escalated from there to the point that the schedule had to be amended to allow for all of the flag raising stunts! And now we seem to have a new evolvement. The stunts seem to have given way to stickers and other gifts. I am interested to see what will be next.

"You lead, we'll follow at CAMP Tar Hollow!"

What do you get when you put floating numbers in the lake, add some balled up shirts, water balloons and several huge sling shots? You get 125 campers fighting for a shot at a camp theme shirt! With shirts and balloons being launched into the air, campers made some great

C.A.M.P. Secret Service has announced the discovery of a water gun assassination plot against C.A.M.P. Advancement Officer, Jim Schnell.

A group calling itself "Dog Gone Be Gone", released a statement saying "Jim Schnell's investigation of the CAMPness Monster MUST STOP!!!!"

According to our unnamed source, the investigation will continue. At this time, however, no suspects have been arrested and Jim Schnell should WATCH HIS BACK!!!!

Only 10 T-Shirts?

catches whether it was a shirt or a balloon. Who won the shirts? Why everyone of course...Everyone at camp is a winner! It was a great opportunity to cool down and have some fun at the same time. It turned into an all out water fight that led us onto the giant slip and slide, a

TAKE YOUR ROADBLOCKS TO THE CROSS

Our C.A.M.P. pastor, Mike Mahan, brought us an inspiring vespers Tuesday evening. As Mike led the way with his message, we each were given the opportunity to write down any obstacles or roadblocks we are facing as we strive toward our goals. We then took those problems and nailed them to a cross. The C.A.M.P. choir added to the experience. The entire service helped remind us all that we should let the Lord lead the way, always.

favorite at camp! With gelatin and water flowing, campers and staff slid, slipped and belly flopped their way down to the eventual mud pit at the bottom. After cleaning off, the evening ended with a Friendship Circle that reminded us that God has a special purpose for all of us!