SENIORS THROW THE "COOLEST" PARTY EVER!

By Josh Maust

The Winter Wonderland party was the coolest place to be for campers last night. In a shocking turn of events, it began to snow! The oddest part wasn't that it was in August ...it was that the snowstorm was inside! The campers didn't seem to mind, though, and enjoyed the blizzard as they danced. The senior campers provided a wide variety of activities for junior campers to participate in, from games to a marriage booth! One camper got married so many times, his ring finger got lost beneath the flood of wedding rings! It has yet to be found. Refreshments, also provided by the efforts of the senior campers, kept junior campers fed with cookies and bug juice. The party was a huge success, and not even Scrooge or the Ghost of Christmases Yet to Come could cool this party down!

GREAT DAY AT THE BOAT RACES

By Janny Brizius

Once again, one of the most fun days at CAMP lived up to its reputation. The boat races are sort of "Boonie Baseball" on the water as the unconventional rules of each race led to hilarious situations, many tipped canoes (only a few on purpose), and great teamwork from each group of racers.

This reporter was interrupted half-way through the contest, but it has been reported to her that an actual final winner has yet to be calculated. However, everyone came away winners if the purpose of the games was to have fun!

BAPTISM

By Lynnette Mathews

The baptism service was excellent this year as usual. Five members of CAMP made the decision to be baptized. Hanna Kubbins (rookie), Katie Lambert, Justin Argentine (rookie counselor), Chris Walker, and Melissa Herrst all committed themselves to Christ. Nothing beats the rush of bringing new followers before CAMP and the Lord himself, or watching in amazement as the entire camp races to give them all a warm embrace. Also, Pastor Bill graced us with a song he had written 30 years ago which played in beautifully with our theme! It was a breathtaking service to all who were privileged to experience it.
