

Saturday Morning Watch

Rise above

“Stuff “at home from folks who have not experienced what you have this week.

So today we are going home. Some of our friends will not understand the change in us. (They’ve not had the chance to experience this wonderful week.) Realize that they just don’t understand, and Rise above the “stuff!” This special week is yours to keep forever--in your hearts. Do not let anyone spoil it for you.

SOME WAYS TO HOLD ON TO IT:

1. You will get a year book and a roster of the campers and staff.
Refer to them often, and be in touch with your camp friends.
2. Create your own Morning Watch Time---Your own Vespers Time.
Find your own special place that works for you to do this
3. If you have access to the internet and Facebook--
Find camp friends there and the camp prayer list, too!

And Always . . . Just Remember!

And now, may the Lord watch between me and thee while we are absent one from the other.

God’s Blessing to all -- Till we meet again, and always.

Remember- When He calls you--Answer.
